Booking with Kevendys

We pride ourselves on the high standard of service that we offer our customers throughout every step of your day excursion. Our dedicated booking staff are on hand either by phone or at our office and will be happy to assist you with your booking or answer any queries you may have to help you decide on the most suitable day excursion for you. They will guide you through the booking procedure and ask if you have any special requirements for your booking. This is an important question that we ask all our customers to ensure that all their requirements are met where possible. On receipt of the required deposit, we will confirm your booking or for your convenience we can hold your booking for 7 days.

Confirmation of your Reservation

Once we receive your non refundable deposit, a confirmation invoice will be issued either in person at our office or posted direct to you. Your confirmation will note all the details relating to your booking such as seat numbers, pick up point and the date your final balance is due. Please note we do not send out reminders for final balance payments.

Expertise and Experience

Kevendys has more than 50 years experience in the travel industry. We are, therefore, experienced enough to give you that extra level of service, not just from the moment you book with us but also during your day excursion.

Value for Money

When you choose a Kevendys day excursion you should look at what you are getting and don't just compare prices, compare what's included.

So what is included?

Day Excursion Terms & Conditions

To Make a Booking

To make a provisional booking, you can either call into our office or call one of our dedicated booking staff. We will hold places for you without obligation for a period of 7 days. Please note that provisional bookings will be cancelled automatically if a deposit is not made to secure the booking within this time.

Confirmation of Booking

In order to confirm your booking, we require either payment in full or a £5.00 per person non-refundable deposit with the full payment due 2 weeks prior to the departure date. Once payment is received (either in full or part) we will send your excursion ticket which confirms receipt of payment, number and location of seats booked and pick up times. Please note that we do not send out reminders for balances that are due and these dates are clearly noted on your excursion ticket.

Theatre Tickets

In respect of theatre bookings only, payment is required in full at the time of booking. Should you wish to cancel any theatre booking with us, you may do so but please note that any refunds will only be made if we are able to re-sell the tickets on your behalf.

Methods of Payment

Methods of payment are by cash, cheque or debit card. Cheque payments to be made payable to Kevendys Travel.

Cancellation By the Company

Should circumstances arise where, we are forced to cancel any excursion, all monies paid by passengers for that particular excursion will be refunded in full. Following that, the company shall be exempt from any further liability.

By the Passenger

You may cancel your booking at any time prior to departure subject to the following conditions: In the event of a customer cancelling a booking more than 14 days prior to departure, a full refund will be made (less the deposit). The exception to this rule is theatre tickets and any admission tickets for which a refund will only be made if the tickets can be resold on your behalf. In the event of a customer cancelling a booking less than 14 days prior to departure, a refund will only be given if, tickets can be resold and will be subject to a £2 administration fee.

Alterations

The company reserves the right to alter excursions or prices, the size, seating plan and specification of the vehicle used or to cancel any excursion listed in the brochure. We also reserve the right to alter routes, timings or stopping places. All dates and times are correct at the time of printing, but may be liable to change due to any circumstances beyond our control.

Admission

Admission charges are included in all prices unless otherwise stated.

Boarding Information

The company requires all passengers to arrive 5 minutes before the time stated on their excursion ticket, as we cannot accept any liability for passengers arriving after the stated coach departure time.

Covid 19

Due to the COVID 19 Pandemic it is very important that we all follow some simple guidance to protect our staff, our clients and anyone else that we may come into contact with as we carry out our day excursions and holidays. As such, please ensure you follow this guide to help maintain the hygiene levels that we currently have in place to reduce the spread of any disease. Temperature checks are carried out when boarding the coach and anyone found with a temperature or signs of having the virus will not be allowed to travel. Sanitizer is available to be used every time you get on and off the coach and we recommend that masks are worn to board and depart the coach. All areas which are touched will be cleaned by our staff. A fogging machine is used after every tour to disinfect the coach in places we cannot reach ready for the next tour or day excursion.

Departure Times

Departure and refreshment stop times will be advised by the Escort/Driver and passengers are requested to adhere to these times in order to comply with regulations governing driver's hours.

Breakdowns & Delays

The company gives its advice on journey times but does not guarantee the completion of any journey at a specific time and will not be liable for loss or inconvenience caused by breakdown, other delay or any other cause beyond the control of the company.

Force Majeure

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these Booking Conditions, we regret that we cannot accept any liability, offer any refunds or pay for any loss incurred or compensation where the performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected or you otherwise suffer any damage or loss as a result of 'force majeure'. In these Terms & Conditions 'force majeure' means any event or circumstances which we or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid and is therefore an event beyond our or the suppliers' reasonable control. These events whether actual or threatened include but are not limited to strikes, riots, political/civil unrest, government acts, hostilities, war, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, viral outbreak, health risks, pandemics, adverse and severe weather conditions, closure, restriction or congestion of transport hubs.

Property

The company will not accept liability for any damage to or loss of property belonging to any passenger left in the vehicle. All articles of lost property recovered from a vehicle will be held at the office for a period of four months.

Data Protection Act 1984

To comply with the Data Protection Act 1984, we must inform you that your name and address is held on our computerised mailing list and booking system that is used exclusively by Kevendys Travel, and will not be given to any other persons outside of the company. Should you wish to be removed from our booking system, please notify us in writing.

DDA

Our coaches are not able to carry passengers in wheelchairs, but provided that the coach can be accessed, any folding wheelchairs may be placed in the luggage hold. If a seat with greater leg room is required or an assistance dog is accompanying a passenger please mention this at the time of booking.

Pick Up Points

These may be subject to a transfer to bring you to join the coach at the last pick up point. We do this to minimize the amount of pick up points. Please note that the transfer may be a Coach, Minibus or Taxi. We reserve the right to use a transfer vehicle at any pick up point, should it be necessary.

HOLIDAY TERMS & CONDITIONS ARE AVAILABLE FROM OUR OFFICE OR PRINTED ON THE RESERVE OF YOUR BOOKING CONFIRMATION.

LLANDUDNO

MONDAY 31ST JULY

Wales' largest resort with the attractions to match – so whether you fancy a ride in the UK's only cable hauled tramway to the top of the Great Orme, standing majestically over Llandudno's bay, or perhaps a stroll down the largest pier in Wales with its traditional stalls and entertainment.

- Isle of Anglesey ● Beaumaris
- Llanfair PG ● Porthmadog ● Portmeirion

Day 1 Travel to Llandudno.

Day 2 Off to the town of Porthmadog and included entrance to Portmeirion, a unique Italian style village famous for being the setting of the cult 60s TV series 'The Prisoner'.

Day 3 Free day in Llandudno.

Day 4 We make two stops in Anglesey, the first to Beaumaris, home to the last and largest castle to be built by King Edward I. Then we take you on to Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwymdrobwlilliantysiliogogoch, the town with the longest name in the world! It's known locally as Llanfair PG, but the full name certainly takes some practice (and breath) to say. It actually translates to mean 'Saint Mary's Church in the hollow of the white hazel near a rapid whirlpool and the Church of St Tysilio of the red cave'. There's plenty of shops here to browse and coffee shops to get a bite to eat.

Day 5 Homeward bound.

Llandudno Bay Hotel ★★★★★

GEMS OF GUERNSEY

SUNDAY 13TH AUGUST

For many people, Guernsey's rural charm and a more leisurely pace of life draws them back, time and time again. This Guernsey Highlights tour brings together the very best the island has to offer.

- St Peter Port ● Castle Cornet
- La Vallette Underground Military Museum
- The Little Chapel ● Island Tour ● Sausmarez Manor

Day 1 We travel to our overnight hotel in Bournemouth to rest before our morning ferry crossing.

Day 2 Travel to Poole by coach, then by ferry to St Peter Port. On arrival in Guernsey you'll be met by coach for the transfer to your hotel.

Day 3 An island coach tour takes us to the fascinating La Vallette Underground Military Museum, Fort Grey and the Shipwreck Museum. A highlight will be our stop at The Little Chapel, as much a curiosity as a work of art, totally covered in shells and broken bits of china. In the afternoon we visit Sausmarez Manor, a family home, with parts dating back to the 12th Century. The estate houses a curious sculpture park and a large bamboo forest.

Day 4 Today we have a full day to explore St Peter Port, Guernsey's picturesque capital, starting with a sightseeing visit to Castle Cornet – St Peter's Port harbour guide for more than 800 years. A guided tour takes you onto the battlements for views towards the neighbouring islands. After the tour explore the onsite museums, but don't miss the daily firing of the noon-day gun.

Day 5 Free day to explore the island at your own pace.

Day 6 Return to the port for the ferry back to Poole and our overnight at our hotel in Bournemouth.

Day 7 Homeward bound.

WARNER'S HEYTHORP PARK (OPENED 2022)

MONDAY 7TH AUGUST

Heythorp Park has been a feature in the Cotswolds since 1710 and is the latest addition to the Warner Leisure Hotels collection. More than 300 years later, it's still immensely popular for the huge variety of activities and entertainment offered in its 'just for adults' hotel.

- Moreton-in-Marsh ● Broadway
- Stow-on-the-Wold ● Bourton-on-the-Water

Day 1 Travel to Heythorp Park.

Day 2 This morning we head into the Cotswolds and visit Moreton-in-Marsh where there is an opportunity to explore the huge Tuesday market, a celebrated weekly event, which takes over the High Street. In the afternoon we make our way to the pretty Cotswold village of Broadway, a delightful place often referred to as the 'Jewel of the Cotswolds'. Here there is time to explore the 'broad way' with its ancient Cotswold stone cottages and myriad of antique shops before returning through the orchards of the Vale of Evesham.

Day 3 Free day to relax in the grounds of Heythorp Park.

Day 4 Today we head into the lush meadows and honey coloured stone villages of the southern Cotswolds where this wonderful scenic tour takes in some of the most perfect picture-postcard villages of middle England. We arrive at Stow-on-the-Wold, where there is time to explore the ancient market square surrounded by dozens of independent antique shops. Then we come to Bourton-on-the-Water, a renowned Cotswolds village with the little River Windrush flowing beneath tiny humpback bridges.

Day 5 Homeward bound.

Heythorp Park ★★★★★

The newest member of the Warner Leisure Hotels Collection, Heythorp Park is Grade II listed and has been stylishly refurbished to include all the features you would expect of a Warner's property. The hotel has a choice of three restaurants, two evening entertainment venues, a selection of bars and lounges. There is a full range of leisure facilities and a full programme of activities available during the day. All bedrooms are equipped with TV, ironing facilities, fluffy robes and hospitality tray. There is Wi-Fi and a lift to some rooms.

WATERWAYS OF CHESHIRE & NORTH WALES

MONDAY 21ST AUGUST

With so many attractions on offer in Cheshire and North Wales, it is difficult to decide which to visit first. This itinerary explores the region's waterways, illustrating the important part it has played in our nation's heritage.

- River Dee Cruise
- Ness Botanical Gardens
- Pontcysllite Aqueduct
- Llangollen
- Anderton Boat Lift

Day 1 Travel to our hotel in North Wales.

Day 2 Begin the day in charming Chester with a tranquil, 30 minute cruise on the River Dee including commentary. The remainder of the morning is at leisure to explore the pretty medieval streets and city walls. After lunch, travel north to the Wirral Peninsula for a guided tour of the award winning Ness Botanic Gardens, founded in 1898 by Arthur Kilpin Bulley, a cotton merchant with a passion for gardens and plant collecting.

Day 3 A leisurely drive past Ruthin before travelling over the spectacular Horseshoe Pass to Llangollen. Enjoy time at leisure here before a short transfer to Froncysyllte to join a canal cruise on a brightly coloured narrowboat, where you will sail across the Pontcysllite Aqueduct, or 'Stream in the Sky', then through the beautiful Vale of Llangollen. An interesting commentary gives visitors an insight into the history of the area and other canals in the UK.

Day 4 Travel to Northwich for a ride on the magnificent Anderton Boat Lift. Originally built in 1875, the structure lifts passengers aboard the elegant Edwin Clark boat from the River Weaver to the Trent and Mersey Canal high above. A comprehensive visitor centre houses an exhibition focusing on the lift's history together with its control centre, so visitors can get close to the action. On then to the pleasant market town of Nantwich, before returning to the hotel via the lovely lakes at Ellesmere.

Day 5 Homeward bound.

ST IVES ON MARKET DAY

Today is market day in St Ives. For nearly 1,000 years the wide centre of St Ives, now known as Market Hill has hosted some of the largest markets in England. Today the street market still fills the town centre. On Monday's however the market swells to fill almost the entire town with traders coming from all over the country to sell their wares to the thousands of people who attend under the watchful eye of Oliver Cromwell, one time resident of the town, whose statue stands in the centre of the Market Place.

TOWER OF LONDON

Founded in 1066 and built to show the Saxons who was boss, the Tower of London has become one of the iconic London landmarks. In its time it has housed a famous and colourful selection of prisoners including the Princes in the Tower, multiple wives and associates of Henry VIII, the young Elizabeth (prior to her coronation), Guy Fawkes, Samuel Pepys, Flora MacDonald, Rudolf Hess and even the Kray Twins. Still home to the Crown Jewels today, at one time the Tower was also host to the Royal Mint. This as well as a royal menagerie including a polar bear (which used to catch fish in the Thames) plus tigers, leopards, alligators and lions. The admission cost 1 ½ d or free if you took a cat or a dog to feed to the lions – thankfully things have progressed since then but the Tower is still sure to provide an entertaining day out.

HIDDEN LONDON & REGENTS CANAL

A short walk and coach tour takes you from one side of London to the other and a relaxing canal cruise through Regents Park. We meet our guide at 10.30am in High Holborn where there is an opportunity to purchase refreshments before we set off. In 1666 the Great Fire of London swept away much of the mediaeval City but the flames died to ashes to leave one corner untouched – a maze of narrow streets and bygone alleyways in ancient Smithfield. We'll walk beneath a Tudor gatehouse into the yard of London's oldest parish church. You'll see Sir John Betjeman's town house and where Scottish hero Sir William Wallace was executed. By the London home of Hercule Poirot, in the site of a plague pit we go inside stately Charterhouse to see the chapel and museum before breaking for lunch locally. Beneath white stuccoed mansions in opulent Little Venice we board a traditional narrow boat. On the 50 minute cruise we pass the aviary designed by Lord Snowdon in London Zoo, see an oriental floating restaurant, willow-draped towpaths and a colourful collection of houseboats. We arrive in the cobbled and flagged yard of Camden Lock for time to buy tea before heading home. Price includes guided tour and canal cruise.

THE POSTAL MUSEUM & MAIL RAIL

Travel back in time to discover the unexpected story of the first social network – the post! This extraordinary process stretches back more than 500 years and has kept us all in the loop without the need of the internet. Now, you'll get to see how it changed our lives – from five-wheeled cycles and rockets to piracy on the high seas and a restored Mail Coach that sped across 1800s Britain! Get up close to the world's first postage stamp, the Penny Black, see flintlock pistols used to defend the mail, marvel over a Victorian miniature rail car that shot post (and people) under London's streets, and even try your hand at sorting the mail on a mock up train carriage complete with wobbly floor. And if that wasn't enough, your ticket also gets you a ride on Mail Rail. Board a miniature train to explore this underground London gem with a 15 minute trip deep underground through the long-hidden tunnels of the Post Office's very own railway dating back over 100 years! There will be time for you to obtain lunch before our afternoon entrance. Price include admission.

LONDON CHRISTMAS LIGHTS TOUR WITH FISH & CHIPS

We head into London and head straight to our restaurant to enjoy fish & chips and choice of apple pie or cheesecake for dessert. After dinner we continue our drive by viewing the major sights of London by night. Floodlit London is stunning – a magical display of colour and a visit at Christmas time is full of nostalgia, rekindling the excitement of Christmas past. If you haven't been to London for a while now you are in for a surprise. The mighty Shard now towers above the skyline, and it looks great at night, it is possibly the most beautiful night time capital in the world. Please note this Christmas tour does not include a blue badge guide. Price includes Fish & Chip Supper & choice of Dessert.
